

Merrell Bailey to Speak at Solo & Small Firm Practice Meeting on June 17, 2014

Maitland, FL – June 12, 2014 – Your Caring Law Firm, a boutique legal practice focused on probate, wills, trust and guardianship services, as well as business succession, asset protection and estate planning, today announced that managing partner Merrell Bailey will speak at the upcoming Solo & Small Firm Practice meeting. The meeting, hosted by the Orange County Bar Association, will be held on Tuesday, June 17, 2014 in Orlando and is open to members of the association.

Bailey will present “Ripped from the Headlines – Planning Lessons from Celebrity Deaths & Disasters,” a look at the estate planning of celebrities such as Philip Seymour Hoffman, James Gandolfini, and Michael Jackson. Specifically, her presentation will feature real-life tax, estate planning and guardianship lessons from these high-profile dramas that can be applied to common life situations.

“Michael Jackson had to choose the best candidates from his family and friends to name as guardians of his children. So might you,” Bailey explained. “James Gandolfini had children from two marriages, and had to figure out how to allocate his estate amongst them. So might you,” Bailey said. “Celebrities are people with the same family issues as the rest of us.”

Merrell Bailey is a five-time UCF College of Business graduate and recovering CPA who crossed over to practice solely as an attorney in the areas of estate, tax, business succession, and asset protection planning. Merrell’s clients are regular people who stay out of the newspaper and like it that way.
